Annie Soltis serves as the Outreach and Transition Coordinator at KSU. Annie joined Kennesaw State University in 2019. She is responsible for coordinating and implementing outreach programming on disability related topics and provides transitional services for students entering post-secondary education. Annie also provides academic coaching and mentoring to students registered with SDS on student success skills such as time management, note-taking strategies, test anxiety, as well as many other areas of academic success. Additionally, she serves as the Advisor for the student organization ABLE. Annie holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Human Development and Family Studies from Auburn University and a Master of Education degree in Counseling from Mississippi State University. When she is not working, Annie enjoys spending time with friends and family, hiking with her dog, Bo, and cheering on her Auburn Tigers.
